

Mentoring and Support for New Teachers or Tutors

Our mentoring support is suited to tutors who are new to teaching. A member of the group will work with individual tutors to analyse and develop their skills in:

- effective lesson planning
- identifying learners' skills and support needs using active learning strategies
- assessing learning
- developing and using resources effectively

Tutors will be encouraged to reflect on their practice by keeping a learning journal which forms the basis for discussion at tutorials

Outcomes:

By the end of this process tutors will feel confident in

- Planning lessons which take into account individual learners' skills and abilities
- Using strategies to develop learners' skills
- Understanding ways in which to support learners in class
- Assessing the progress made by learners in each session
- Using a range of resources with learners

Cost: the number of days is negotiable and depends on the individual learning plan drawn up for each tutor.

Cost: £500 + VAT per day - if you require more than one day, please contact us for a quotation.